EMERGENCY SSL cert update

IT Status

Due to impending inclement weather, the previously-announced update to the SIES server to issue SSL certificates with the full SHA-256 cert chain, scheduled for 5pm tonight, will instead happen at 2pm today. The SIES server will be down for approximately 15 minutes while the new cert chain is installed. New SHA-256 SSL certs may be requested beginning tomorrow (Thursday 2/19).
